THE RECONCILIATION PROCESS IN THE HOUSE

Budget Resolution agreed, with instructions for reconciliation included

Instructed committee(s), which are typically authorizing, begin work to meet instruction independently

Instructed committee(s) mark up their portion of reconciliation recommendations (amendments allowed)

House Budget Committee holds markup (no amendments here; motions to instruct allowed)

House Budget Committee bundles all committees' recommendations and ensures compliance

Instructed committees report recommendations to House Budget Committee

House Budget Committee reports out if markup is favorable; reconciliation gets a bill number

Reconciliation bill goes before Rules Committee (motions to instruct; amendments decided; debate time set)

Floor consideration & House passage > Senate's turn begins
